Social and Personal

Fisher-Frost Wedding.
Seldom has Christ Episcopal church been the scene of a lovelier wedding than when the marriage of Miss Hazel Anne Frost to Mr. Jason Arter Fisher of Pittsburgh, was quietly celebrated at 8 o'clock last evening in the presence of only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. A half hour before the ceremony the doors of the church were thrown open and during the intervening time before the arrival of the bride party, a beautiful musical program was played by the organist, Miss Lambert.

The church was particularly beautiful in its decorations. The large Trinity window was lighted in state by association of light, while in the chancel were groupings of tall palms and greenery, and under the soft glow of the altar candles formed a pleasing background for the bride party.

The wedding march from Tannhauser was played as the bride party entered the church, promptly on the appointed hour. Mrs. Walter C. Frost as patron of honor preceded the bride and was beautifully gowned in apricot tulle, trimmed in lace and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of Bohemian roses and violets. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Ellis Porter Frost, and was radiantly lovely in an exquisite gown of ivory satin, en trainee, with judicious white creton and Viennese lace.

The wedding veil was held in place by a simply fashioned cap of bridal tulle, caught with orange blossoms. Her only ornaments were a string of pearls and a superb ornament of diamonds set in platinum, the latter a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies. The bride party was met at the chancel steps by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Samuel Upham of Pittsburgh, where the betrothal service was read by the rector, the Rev. Charles E. Mitchell, and to the soft strains of "Salute d'Amour" the bride party approached the inner altar where the solemn marriage ceremony of the church was impressively pronounced by the rector.

At the close of the ceremony the bride party left the church to the inspiring strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Immediately after, a reception was held in the assembly room of the Waldo. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Porter Frost were assisted in receiving the guests by the bride party, Mrs. John Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. John Porter of Pittsburgh; Mrs. James Jackson Duncan and the Rev. Charles B. Mitchell. A delightful program of music was rendered by the Cadenza orchestra during the reception and later dancing was enjoyed by the guests until 11 o'clock when a wedding supper was served in the large dining room.

The floral decorations in the ball room and dining room were palms, bride roses and jonquils. Nineteen tables were arranged with covers for eight at each table, while the bride's table was ornamented with the bridal cake bordered with violets and snails. Spring blossoms and cydonium ferns were used as centerpieces at the guests' table.

A charming program of ballads and songs was played during the supper and before the departure of the bride, according to an ancient tradition, she threw her bouquet from the balcony rail which was enthusiastically caught by Mrs. Florence Jackson, Miss Mildred Lambert, Miss Katherine Burns of Huntington, and Miss Ellen Powell, of Parkersburg, each one merrily claiming to be possessor of the bridal flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left on train No. 1 for White Sulphur Springs and after a short honeymoon trip in the East will be at home to their friends at the Hotel Schenley, Pittsburgh.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. John J. Fisher, mother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Samuel Upham, Stanley Anderson, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis P. Frost, Huntington; Mrs. Gallagher and Mrs. Miller Gallagher, of Charleston; Mr. Aurel Ewing, Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stockley, Mrs. George Watson, Mr. Harry Clark, Mr. Walton Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Fleming, Jr., Mr. Brooks Hutchinson, all of Fairmont; Mrs. James M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Fergus O'Connor, Mr. George Ross, of Parkersburg; Miss Katherine Burns.

Opens Art Studio.

There was a large number of visitors present at the formal opening of the art studio under the management of E. Edith Rarick on Saturday afternoon.

The rooms of the studio have been renovated and redecorated and new hangings and furniture installed. The studio now compares favorably with any of the best in the state. The reception room is finished in a pleasing shade of green and with its new furnishings makes an attractive appearance. New and up-to-date equipment has been installed in the work shop of the studio, and Mrs. Rarick, who is a photographer of wide experience, gives the assurance that the best photographs on the market will be supplied. New lighting equipments are being used, resulting in photographs of the new shaded effect. The work is also finished in the new linen and tapestry style.

Mrs. Rarick has been proprietor of two studios in Clarksburg, W. Va., for a number of years and is a member of the National Association of Photographers of America and the ladies' auxiliary of the same association. The former association has only eighty-five women members in the entire United States.

The Bas studio is now prepared to turn out work of the higher class and desires to cater to the class of customers who appreciate the more artistic photographic work.—Paterston, N. J., Morning Call, April 13.

Birthday Party.

Laura Sars proved herself a very delightful hostess when she entertained some friends at her home on Fowler street Tuesday evening in honor of her fourteenth birthday. She received many beautiful presents.

Mrs. Harry Oak, Mrs. Herman Oak, Mrs. Harvey Shock and Mrs. William Sars served an elegant four course luncheon to the following guests:

Misses Emma Miltstead, Rosa Willis, Margaret Hollar, Hazel Pounds, Ada and Grace Donahue, Margaret Lewis, Thelma Shock, Madeline Merrifield, Elvira Mattson, Eugenia Shock, Elizabeth Lutton, Laura Sars and Messrs. Robert Shriner, Neil Lewis, Madison Ireland, Charles Cawthill, Ralph Addington, George Howitt, Sidney Cottrill, George Devaughn and Carl and William Sars.

Here From Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Baldwin, who were former residents of Clarksburg, but who for the last eighteen months have been living at Los Angeles, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Doyle. They will go to Glenville to visit Mrs. Baldwin's parents, for several days. Mr. Baldwin before leaving for California was a popular barber, with Myman Brothers, on West Pike street. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin will make Clarksburg their future home.

Mrs. Nelson Entertains.

In her home on West Main street Mrs. Charles Nelson entertained from 3 to 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at cards in honor of Mrs. Milton J. Foss. From 5 to 8 o'clock progressive euchre was played at eleven tables. At the close of the game the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Estella Shuttleworth and Mrs. James A. Albright. The hostess very graciously presented an honor guest souvenir to Mrs. Foss.

At 8 o'clock a salad supper was served at small tables. Covers were laid for forty-four guests.

SALOON FIGHT

Results in the Arrest of Robert Penn and the Saloon Porter.

Robert Penn, a young white man, with colored porter in a Fourth street saloon, whose name is not known to the police, were arrested shortly after noon today by Officer Hays, following an affray, which they are alleged to have had in the saloon. They will appear after a hearing before Mayor Will H. Cole in police court tomorrow morning.

The cause of the trouble is not known but neither of the men were badly hurt in the affray, as both confined their belligerency to nature's weapons. Penn is in the county jail while the negro is out on bond.

NECKTIE SAVES LIFE.

Camello Carill, of Stockton, Calif., owes his life to a necktie which he wore recently. He was thrown from a motorcycle and landed on a barbed wire fence, the spike penetrating his throat. If it had not been for his tie he would have been seriously injured.

LAND BOUGHT FOR TURNPIKE

C. & O. Railroad Gets $10,150 from Cabell County for a Twelve Mile Strip.

HUNTINGTON, APRIL 16.—A check signed by the county court and payable to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, has just been handed to an attorney for the railroad by County Clerk F. F. McCullough.

It is in payment for a strip of land 12.3 miles in length of the old railroad right of way which is to be leased by the county for a turnpike which will be a part of that connecting Huntington and Charleston. This is over the route of the old Kanawha and James River road. Putnam county and Kanawha county are expected to later build roads over the route of the old turnpike, making a continuous good road from Huntington to the state capital.

Make Improvements. Improvements amounting to from $10,000 to $15,000 will be made on the right of way, now well ballasted with stone, during the coming summer, according to the statement of President D. L. Smith of the county court. A bridge over Mud river, which will cost about $4,000, will be built.

The deed to the land was made in September, 1913. It stipulates $4,000 as the payment for two bridges and $6,150 for the land, at $50 per acre. It provides that the court shall abandon grade crossings about one mile west of Milton and build an overhead crossing.

Many Contracts. The county court let contracts for the improvement of six miles of county roads, with paving, two miles on each the Ohio river, Kanawha and James river and Hamlin pikes. The aggregate amount of these contracts will accumulate $100,000. The Kanawha and James river road will be paved as far as Barboursville, following the completion of work under contract. A large number of bidders will seek the work.

VETERAN MINISTER.

The Rev. James O. Henry, probably the oldest Mason in Illinois, and the last of the 106 Mexican war veterans who went from Shelby county, Ill., is dead in Vandalia, Ill., aged 87. He was a minister of the Christian church for over sixty years. During that time he preached 900 funeral sermons and performed 800 marriage ceremonies.

HUGE EGG.

The latest champion egg comes from South Brooksville, Me., and was laid by a hen owned by Henry Condon. The egg measured 10 inches in circumference the long way, eight the small way, and weighed more than seven ounces.

Sheffield, England, has 106,183 residential buildings. Of these more than 2,000 are vacant.

Dangers of a Cold.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the colds themselves that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that they so often lead to. For that reason every cold should be gotten rid of with the least possible delay. To accomplish this you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy of great help to you. It loosens a cold, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration and enables the system to throw off the cold. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.
